

Jigsaw Collaboration

The Jigsaw technique is a powerful combination of both cooperative and collaborative learning. Once given a topic for research, students split into focus groups. Here they become "experts" on a specific part. Once the task is completed, they return to their home group to share their expertise. The home group may produce a presentation or project to demonstrate their learning.